Plans & Pricing

Do we have to sign a long-term contract?

Our Managed IT agreements have a default term of 18 months, though we offer flexible contract lengths ranging from 12 months up to 60 months to suit your business plans. If you do not require 24/7 managed services, you do not need a contract at all—we offer one-off jobs and standalone projects that can be ordered at any time. Our engineers know our standard pricing structure and can create and send proposals for you to sign 24/7.
